Story Ideas from The Golden Isles of Georgia

A GOLFER'S PARADISE - With 180 holes of golf on some of the country's most spectacular and acclaimed courses, The Golden Isles are a golfer's dream. Local golf courses have spent millions of dollars in renovations and new facilities aimed at ensuring the highest level of excellence in golf.

HISTORIC TREASURES - The Golden Isles are filled with fascinating museums and historical sites from Fort Frederica National Monument, the Lighthouse Museum and Maritime Museum on St. Simons Island, to Old Town Brunswick and the Jekyll Island National Historic Landmark District.

NATURE'S BOUNTY - From the Marshes of Glynn to its maritime forests and beaches, visitors are mesmerized by the area's natural beauty. Bicycling, horseback rides, water tours aboard a working shrimp boat or a dolphin watch cruise, birding and nature walks, shelling, fishing and kayaking are but a few of the outdoor experiences that await you here.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY FUN - The Golden Isles are an ideal destination for relaxed family getaways. Discover an array of fun, family-friendly activities: sun-drenched beaches, sea turtle walks, nature camps, art classes, bicycling, mini-golf, water parks and more!

ROMANCE ABOUND - Quiet walks along moonlit beaches. A carriage ride amidst moss-draped live oaks. A sunset cruise aboard a vintage yacht or sailboat. The Golden Isles' lush natural beauty and quiet atmosphere will help kindle the flames of romance and create cherished memories for couples of any age. Abundant amenities and activities help make your romantic getaway as active or relaxed as you like.

MEMORABLE MEETINGS - Whether you're planning a convention for a thousand or an intimate executive retreat for a dozen, The Golden Isles offer an array of meeting sites that range from standalone meeting and conference facilities to historic settings, and full-service island resorts to a private island retreat.
