The Gateway to Cumberland Island

Cumberland Island National Seashore:

- “Land & Legacies” van tours. These motorized guided “north end tours allow visitors to cover much more of the island than what one could see hiking on their own for a day trip. Sites may include Plum Orchard, the First African Baptist Church and the Stafford Plantation site. The tour begins once you arrive on the island, at 9:45 a.m. and lasts approximately 6 hours. The fee for this tour is currently an additional $45 and advance reservations are highly recommended. This is a “behind the scenes” type tour with limited availability.
 - Cumberland Island National Seashore celebrated 40 years as a seashore on October 23, 2012.
- Named to the “Where’s the best beach in America?” list – Time Magazine (July 2015); “10 Secret Beaches to Put on your Bucket List” by Yahoo! Travel (July 2015); “Top 10 US Destinations List 2014” by Lonely Planet (12/2013); Best US Southern Islands” by Travel Channel (1/2013).

Noteworthy:

- St. Marys Peace Garden joined the Binational Peace Garden Trail in July 2012. The Binational Tourism Alliance created the trail as a tourism initiative to stimulate cross border tourism from Canada by highlighting the War of 1812. The garden commemorates the War of 1812, celebrates 200 years of peace and prosperity between the two nations, and is the southeastern most point on the trail.
- Rivers are trails, Too! The Georgia Coast Saltwater Paddle Trail, which includes St. Marys, was designated as a Nation Recreation Trail. The designation was celebrated in June 2012 with activities including kayak and paddleboarding demonstrations, education on “Leave No Trace” practices and a one-hour river clean-up by kayak.
- The St. Marys Railroad offers theatrical train excursions throughout the year. Themes for the hour and a half ride have included the Pirate Express, Easter Bunny Express, Santa Express, America’s Heroes and Wild West Express.
- Tommy Casey Memorial Dog Park – The official ribbon cutting of this pet paradise took place in April 2013.
- The Georgia Radio Museum & Hall of Fame: Opened in May 2014, the museum preserves Georgia radio history and honors its men and women.
- The St. Marys History Walk was dedicated in March 2016. It offers a 600 foot trail with 24 interpretive panels highlighting the cities rich history.

St. Marys Classic Museums and Attractions:

- St. Marys Aquatic Center is great summer time fun for kids of all ages. Season opens in April and ends in September. Orange Hall is an Antebellum house museum circa 1830-38 that is open daily for guided tours. The Greek Revival architecture of the mansion makes it a centerpiece of downtown St. Marys. The St. Marys Submarine Museum offers memorabilia and artifacts from World War I to present. The museum celebrated its 20th anniversary in 2016. The Cumberland Island National Seashore Museum & War of 1812 Display Room exhibits the island lifestyle plus artifacts from the Forgotten Battle – one of the last battles of the War of 1812 took place in St. Marys in January of 1815. The oldest marked grave in Oak Grove Cemetery is dated 1801 and there are more Revolutionary War patriots buried here than in any other Georgia cemetery. Historic one hour “tram” tour of downtown St. Marys. Currently is offered at 11am and 2pm Monday-Saturday.
